

From the Editorial Suite

Welcome to the platform of divine voices where mysteries of the kingdom are unleashed and made available through the 19th edition of Livinghope Magazine, your kingdom partner in progress. Consequent upon our accreditation to cover Shiloh 2018, we have for your reading pleasure; Shiloh: Emergence of the Mountain of Voices and Transformation and to God be all the glory. We appreciate and celebrate God in the life of Dr. William Wilson, President of Oral Roberts University for his meekness that makes greatness out of him. Featuring Oral Roberts University, which happens to be the university that is second to none as empowered by the Holy Spirit for global impact, would have been impossible without his understanding and cooperation. We have for you also great interviews that are edifying, educative and instructive. Important personalities such as Evangelist Tope Alabi and Joe Praize, who are vessels of honour called to declare the praise of God using the gift of singing, are to be appreciated. Other eminent personalities like Lady Funke Awolowo, Dr. Brian Grant and all the staff members of Giantability Media network did contribute in no small measure to make this edition what God intended it to be.

Remember that whatever God does shall be permanent and we are not oblivious of the fact that riches are different from blessings, for one can be rich and not be blessed but no one can be blessed and not be rich. We are blessed to be a blessing and there is no limit to how far the hand of God takes Giantability from here. We celebrate the God of Oral Roberts as we draw from the same well of salvation and declare that the joy of our readers shall not be stolen. "Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation" -Isaiah 12:3.

If you know Him who asks from you a drink, you would have given Him for what you stand to gain in return is an everlasting drink (the living water) that terminates your thirst and hunger forever. Thank you for being there for us, together, we shall all make it to heaven in grand style.

Pastor Samuel 'Tunji Adeyanju
