

From the EDITORIAL SUITE

What a new year, a new season and a new day that we find ourselves enveloped in after the devastating and crippling effect of the COVID 19 pandemic. So many activities were forced to be put on hold including the production of the 20th edition of livinghope magazine which ordinarily should have come up last year 2020. To be late is better than never and God is never late but always on time. We celebrate God on the successful production of this edition of the magazine and the wisdom we received for turning it around for better acceptability. It is notable that the magazine has translated from being a Christian magazine to become what people regardless of their religious affiliations can embrace and be a part of and this indeed is a giant stride.

We use this edition also to commemorate the emergence of President Joe Biden and his vice, Kamala Harris, even as we hope that their tenure of office shall be full of hope for all Americans in particular and the world in general. We also cannot discountenance the contributions of all those who wrote for us in this special edition to make it a success as well as those that feature on the pages of the magazine. We are indeed grateful to you all. We use this medium also to solicit support from all and sundry in the forms of advertisement and donations to help us maintain consistency and forge ahead in our call to impact our immediate environment in particular and the world in general. We thank you all for your prayers and generosity. Enjoy the reading of this wonderful package and remain blessed.
